Dear Mr. King,

I am writing to apply for a position of a senior programmer that was advertised at Monster.com.

Attached you will find a completed job application, my resume, all certifications, and two references.

I consider and opportunity to work at your company very interesting and promising, and I am sure that my knowledge and rich technical experience will help me become a competitive candidate for the abovementioned position.

I believe that the following key strengths I possess will help me get a chance to work in your company:

- I always strive for excellence and always learn something new;
- I have a great experience in designing, encoding, developing, and supporting iOS applications;
- I intend to provide the best quality products;
- I always try to provide the best customer support to the clients.

I have a BS degree in Programming, and, therefore, I have a clear understanding of how software projects are developed and what is the life cycle of such projects. At my previous place of work, I always strived for excelling at new technologies and learning new programming languages.

Please get acquainted with my resume to see the additional information on my education and work experience.

You are welcome to reach me anytime at 323-711-7711 or adam.smith1@gmail.com.

Thank you for taking your time to consider my application. I look forward to hearing from you regarding my application.

Sincerely,

Adam Smith
